

43.11

Government College.

Lahore.

(1903)

British India.

Feb. 18th.

Dear Dr. Goldziher.

I send two more books

منار الهدى and شرح تجريد العقائد

which deal with questions of اختلاف

The price of the two together is 15 shillings. I am in search of more books of the same kind and hope to be able to send them soon.

May I ask you to be so kind

as to lend me Sa'dja's Amānat wa-'itigādāt for a short time. I cannot find a copy here in India. You told me once  that there is a mention
in it of <sup>the</sup> ~~the~~ Nazāmīyah, which is referred to on p. 29 of
of my text on the Mu'tazilah.

Please do not send any more money to Weigel in Leipzig. I should prefer a Money Order sent to me direct. I presume that Money Orders can be sent through the Post Offices in Hungary to any part of the world, just as they can be sent from India.

I have utterly failed to find out who was the ~~the~~ who is so frequently quoted in my text on the Mu'tazilah.

I have heard lately from Dr. Stein: he tells me that he is making good progress with his Report.

My wife joins me in kind regards to Madame Goldziher and yourself.
Yours sincerely
T. W. Arnold.